PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 109th CONGRESS, SECOND SESSION

Vol. 152

WASHINGTON, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 2006

No. 29

House of Representatives

The House met at 10 a.m.

The Reverend Ricky Atkins, Pastor, Courtney Baptist Church, Yadkinville, North Carolina, offered the following prayer:

Dear God, today as this session opens, we pray that Your presence will be before us and everyone who serves in the decision-making process of our Nation. We pray for direction which will lead our Nation to be a strong and unified Nation and continue the legacies of our forefathers. May we be granted this day decisions which will be pleasing to You and decisions which will change the course of history.

We pray for all our military personnel. We lift them before You today and ask for their protection as they perform their duties. May grace abound with them as they, in harm's way, defend our country. We pray for those who are in need across our Nation, people who are without the basic needs to survive. May they receive relief by Your hand, which will be beneficial to them. Guide us this day. Amen.

THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER. The Chair has examined the Journal of the last day's proceedings and announces to the House his approval thereof.

Pursuant to clause 1, rule I, the Journal stands approved.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from California (Mr. CARDOZA) come forward and lead the House in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Mr. CARDOZA led the Pledge of Allegiance as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

WELCOMING THE REVEREND RICKY ATKINS

(Ms. FOXX asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Ms. FOXX. Mr. Speaker, it is my honor and privilege to introduce our guest chaplain, Reverend Richard "Ricky" Atkins, the head pastor of Courtney Baptist Church in Yadkinville, North Carolina, in the Fifth District.

Reverend Atkins is a vital part of the religious community in northwest North Carolina's rural mountain region. Prior to leading 350 members at Courtney Baptist Church, he served at Zephyr Baptist Church in Dobson, North Carolina, from 1995 to 2000, and at Oak Grove Baptist Church in Madison, North Carolina, from 2000 to 2005. He graduated from Fruitland Bible Institute in 2000 with an associate's degree in biblical ministries.

Reverend Atkins was born and raised in Mt. Airy, North Carolina. He is the son of Tommy and Rebecca Atkins, whose support was instrumental in helping him get to Washington today. Reverend Atkins and his wife, Debbie, currently reside in Yadkinville with their two children Alison and Lee.

Reverend Atkins' life has been one of service to God and his community. Throughout the years he has brightened and enriched the lives of many others. It is an honor to have him serve as our guest chaplain. I hope that his words of prayer will remain with all of us as we do the people's work today.

ON THE CHILDREN'S SAFETY AND VIOLENT CRIME REDUCTION ACT, H.R. 4472

(Mr. KELLER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. KELLER. Madam Speaker, I rise today in strong support of the Children's Safety and Violent Crime Reduction Act, because it is a commonsense way to protect our schoolchildren from pedophiles. Isn't it a matter of common sense to allow a local school district in Orlando, Florida, to do criminal background checks on coaches, janitors and teachers who work with our children to make sure they are not convicted pedophiles from Georgia or some other State?

Isn't it common sense to protect young schoolchildren in the first place by keeping these pedophiles locked up with lengthy prison sentences?

Isn't it common sense that coddling repeated sex offenders with self-esteem courses and rehabilitation doesn't work, and that locking them up works?

It is high time that we crack down on molesters by implementing these commonsense reforms. I urge my colleagues to vote "yes" on H.R. 4472 today.

PORT SECURITY AND REPUBLICAN FAILURES TO SECURE OUR NATION

(Mr. CARDOZA asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. CARDOZA. Madam Speaker, when the Bush administration learned that the American people wanted to allow the United Arab Emirates to operate U.S. ports, they were outraged. That outrage should be extended to this administration's pathetic record on securing our ports and our coastlines.

Since September 11th, according to the U.S. Coast Guard, the Republican Congress has shortchanged America's seaports by more than $4 billion in security improvements. It is because of this serious lack of funding that only 6 percent of the cargo coming into our ports is ever checked. Port security is so bad that in December, the 9/11 Commission gave this administration a
